“So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you; do not turn aside to the right or to the left. Walk in obedience to all that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess.”

RHYTHM:

<sup>12</sup> And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in obedience to him, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup> and to observe the LORD's commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good? <sup>14</sup> To the LORD your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it. <sup>15</sup> Yet the LORD set his affection on your ancestors and loved them, and he chose you, their descendants, above all the nations—as it is today.

“For what the law
was powerless to do
in that it was weakened by the
sinful nature, God
did by sending his own Son in the
likeness of sinful
man to be a sin
offering.” Rom 8:3

“For you have been my refuge, a strong tower...”

Psalm 61:3

A person is sitting on the floor in a dark room, leaning against a wall. They are silhouetted against a bright light source coming from a doorway or window behind them. The person's head is bowed, and they appear to be in a state of distress or contemplation. The floor is dark, and the wall is also dark, with the light creating a strong contrast.
