Transformed

Mark 9

Who do people say that I am?

Za koho ma
ľudia pokladajú?

After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them. His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them.

⁴ And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus. ⁵ Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” ⁶ (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.)

“This is My beloved Son,
in whom I am well pleased,
Listen to Him”

Transfiguration =
the point where human nature meets God
